2018 Carlson Creek Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon

Background:

We've been sourcing a handful of reds from Carlson Creek Vineyard for the past few vintages now and we're always surprised by how much this vineyard's character stands out. The reds just seem to have more intense, inviting aromatics and fuller, richer palates than their counterparts from other vineyards – even at lower alcohols. The Cab Sauv from this vineyard always strikes us as a happy medium between Old- and New-World characters. The fruit on the nose is generous, but it's bright and cheery, not too dark or concentrated. Light notes of spice, wood and earth add to the fruit's complexity making this a beautiful and food-friendly wine. Only three barrels produced.
