2019 Cimarron Vineyard Syrah

Background:

We've been working with Cimarron Syrah for seven vintages now, and it's become a real staple in our cellar. Not only does this wine make its way into a couple of our important blends, we always pull our favorite two or three barrels for a vineyard/varietal designate. It's become such a reliable old pal that we sometimes forget what amazing wine this stuff actually makes. With its dark, brooding fruit, green spice, floral notes of lavender and its dense tannins, Cimarron regularly puts out one of the most complex and complete Syrahs we've seen in Arizona to-date. Only two barrels produced.
